

Coat and color types of purebred Collies:

Purebred Collies have a long nose, face that is flat between the eyes (no stop), white chest and white feet. Purebred Collies don't all look like "Lassie"! There are 2 coat types and 4 colors. Coats vary in 2 lengths and 4 color types; ears may be tipped over or straight up; eyes can be small to medium and round, the white collar can vary from none to wide there may be shades of color within a color type. Tail tip is usually white.

Local Collie Rescue Contact: Minnesota Wisconsin Collie Rescue
Phone: 612-869-0480 www.mwcr.org

Color types:	Rough Coats (long haired)	Smooth Coats (short haired)
Sable and white: sable may vary in color, darker and redder to lighter and tan
Tri-colored: black, with tan face and on legs, and white chest/feet
"Blue" merle: gray to beige background with black spots; rest like the tri-color
White: Head and spots may be tri-color, sable or blue merle

